Wells's company, Third Illinois Mounted Infantry, Blackhawk war, I am directed by the Secretary of War to inform you that the official records show that Jacob Hall was enrolled June 16, 1832, for ninety days, as a private in Capt. B. G. Wells's company of the Third Regiment, First Brigade, Illinois Mounted Volunteers, Blackhawk war, and that he was mustered out with the company August 15, 1832, with remark: "Furloughed August 9."
